

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

38th Biennial Convention

September 10-13, 2015 • Phoenix, Arizona

Convention at a Glance

One of the top Republican gatherings this year, the NFRW's 38th Biennial Convention will bring 1,250 Republican women leaders from across the nation to the JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort to:

- TRAIN for leadership roles by attending a variety of educational seminars and workshops
- PREPARE for the 2016 political season by hearing from Republican candidates, leaders and elected officials, as well as nationally-recognized political experts
- RECOGNIZE distinguished leadership and service within the NFRW
- NETWORK with women from across the country
- PLAN the future of the Federation
- CONDUCT Federation business

Notable speakers and programs include:

- Leading presidential candidates Carly Fiorina and Ted Cruz (plus videos and representatives from other major campaigns)
- Top Arizona leaders, including Governor Doug Ducey, Secretary of State Michele Reagan, U.S. Senator Jeff Flake, and GOP Chairman Robert Graham
- National leaders, including Republican National Committee Co-Chair Sharon Day, U.S. Representatives Kay Granger (TX) and Chris Smith (NJ), and Cindy McCain
- Presidential straw poll conducted by national pollster Kellyanne Conway, providing important insights on how Republican women view the field seeking the GOP nomination and what they are looking for in our nominee

Founded in 1938, the NFRW has thousands of active members in local clubs across the nation, making it one of the largest women's political organizations in the country. The grassroots organization works to promote the principles and objectives of the Republican Party, elect Republican candidates, inform the public through political education and activity, and increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government.
