

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

38th Biennial Convention

September 10-13, 2015 • Phoenix, Arizona

Julie Harris

Julie Harris is the past president of the Arkansas Federation of Republican Women (AFRW). Julie was president from June 2010 - July 2012. Previously, she served as AFRW treasurer, two terms as a local club president, and is currently serving as 1st vice president of Washington County Republican Committee.

Julie has served as district committeewoman, state committeewoman, delegate to district and state conventions, and delegate to the 2008 and 2012 RNC convention. In 2012 she served on the RNC Platform Committee. She has volunteered for and worked on many campaigns since 2004. She has been a campaign manager for candidates ranging from justice of the peace and state representative, to U.S. senator. During the 2014 Election, Julie was an Arkansas field director for Women Speak Out, a project of Susan B. Anthony.

Julie has served on three committees for the National Federation of Republican Women. From 2010-2011 she served on the Public Relations Committee. From 2012-2013 she served on the Legislative Committee. Currently Julie is chairman of the Achievement Awards Committee.

In 2012, Julie was appointed by Arkansas Secretary of State to the Capitol Arts and Grounds Commission, and she is currently serving on AIPAC's National Council.

Julie and her husband, Jonathan, have five children and one grandchild. They live in Springdale, Arkansas where they are owners of Harris Finishing and co-owners of New Century Counter Tops and Tile.