

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

38th Biennial Convention

September 10-13, 2015 • Phoenix, Arizona

Kim Reem

Kim Reem brings 27 years of grass-roots political experience to the clients of her company, Reem Consulting. Kim has successfully managed statehouse, local and ballot issue campaigns and she provides key assistance to many political clients. Kim has particularly enjoyed working for two Speakers of the Iowa House: Ron Corbett and Kraig Paulsen, both from Linn County.

Kim serves as president of the Iowa Federation of Republican Women (2014-15). She is the immediate past president of Five Seasons Republican Women (FSRW) in Cedar Rapids (2012-13).

Under her leadership, FSRW was recognized by the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW) for 100% Membership Increase in 2012, and the club grew 185%—the highest percentage of club growth in the country. In 2013, Kim received the Outstanding NFRW Member for Membership Recruitment Award for her membership recruitment excellence as president of FSRW. Kim designed the 2013 award-winning NFRW Newspaper Ad for the IowaFRW. In 2014, Kim and the IowaFRW hosted the NFRW Strike Force for Joni Ernst and she took a team from Iowa to Shreveport, Louisiana to work in the NFRW Strike Force for Bill Cassidy.

In the Iowa Federation of Republican Women (IowaFRW), Kim has served as chair of the Youth Involvement Committee, editor for the Iowa Republican Woman and member of the Budget and Women in Business Committees.

Kim serves as a board member for Linn Eagles PAC which seeks to elect Republican candidates from Linn County. She is a member and past co-chair of the Linn County Republican

Central Committee where she serves on the Treasurer's Support Team.

Kim is a cabinet member for Fix the Debt (IA), a non-partisan organization focused on getting the national debt under control.

In 2008, Kim founded Comet Athletes, Inc., a faith-based athletic program for home schooled students in the Cedar Rapids metro area. She serves as president of the 501(c)(3) and is head coach for varsity volleyball.

In her community, Kim volunteers and serves on the board of Mission of Hope, a non-profit organization focused on meeting the spiritual and physical needs of those facing hardship. She is a member of Gospel Light Baptist Church where she is involved in youth ministries and marketing.

Kim attended Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids and Maranatha Baptist University in Watertown, Wisconsin, majoring in social sciences.

Kim was born in Jacksonville, Illinois, and moved to Iowa with her family as a child. She resides in Marion with her husband Jim, a computer software engineer. They have two daughters: Kylie and Lauren.
