

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF REPUBLICAN WOMEN

38th Biennial Convention

September 10-13, 2015 • Phoenix, Arizona

Resolutions Guidelines

Please use the following guidelines when submitting resolutions for consideration by the 38th Biennial NFRW Convention. Additional details and a sample resolution are available on the following pages.

1. Any resolution (except courtesy resolutions) to be considered by the NFRW shall be concerned only with matters of national significance and be within the objectives of the NFRW.
2. Resolutions may be submitted by NFRW's Executive Committee, standing committees, state federations and clubs.
3. A resolution sponsored by a club must have been submitted to its respective state federation for approval by the governing board of that federation.
4. A resolution must be submitted by e-mail to NFRW's headquarters and to the chair of the Resolutions Committee at least 30 days prior to the convention (to be postmarked no later than August 13, 2015).
5. Each resolution (except courtesy resolutions) must be accompanied by a fact sheet indicating sources of information and a rationale explaining why the Federation should take a stand on the issue.
6. Resolutions will be distributed to convention delegates the day prior to formal consideration and vote.

GUIDELINES FOR MAKING A RESOLUTION AT NFRW NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

A resolution is a main motion, which, because of its importance or its length, is offered in a more formal matter.

Any resolutions which are proposed for consideration by the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW) must be concerned with only matters of national significance, and must be within the scope of the objectives of our Federation.

If an individual member has a proposal to submit, she should do so by directing the resolution to her club. Upon receiving the approval by the governing body of the state federation, the resolution would then be sent to the proper person at the NFRW.

All resolutions must be in proper form; when a club presents a resolution to the state federation, it should be worded as if the state were ready to vote on the resolution. That is to say, indicate that it is a state federation resolution. In the same manner, when a state federation submits a resolution to NFRW, it should be written to indicate that it is a National Federation resolution.

It is important at each level, to have documentation of facts and sources of information. A rationale explaining reasons why the Federation should take a stand on the matter must also accompany the resolution.

FORMAT

A resolution is divided into a preamble and a resolved.

PREAMBLE:

Each explanation is a separate paragraph and contains NO periods. Each clause or paragraph begins with the word “Whereas” followed by a comma, and a capital letter for the next word. The paragraph ends with a semi-colon.

Example: Whereas, The.....;
Whereas, It.....; and
Whereas, The.....;

Note: The word “and” appears only one time—directly and before the final “Whereas.”

RESOLVED:

It is best to use only a few connecting words; “therefore be it” is not necessary. If they are used, they follow the final Whereas.

“Resolved, that.....” (state action necessary to be taken.) If there is more than one Resolved, each begins in the same way. Only one “and” is used—prior to the final Resolved (see sample format).

Sample Format- National Level:

Whereas, The.....;
Whereas, The.....; and
Whereas, The.....;
Resolved, That the National Federation of Republican Women—(date and place or type of meeting)—(action to be taken).

Remember: Resolutions are for lengthy motions, important items, and they provide explanations within the “Whereas” paragraphs. The number of “Whereas” paragraphs should be few. Too many items tend to detract from the Resolved.
